

Welding Training and Certification

This comprehensive training course consists of an introduction to polymer chemistry, welding theory, and hands-on hot gas weld training. Participants will gain a fundamental understanding of thermoplastic materials such as PP, PVC, and SIMONA® CRP-1, FRP-3 and FRP-5 and receive a certificate of participation in SIMONA Academy Welding Training upon completion*.

Topics Covered

- Hands-on training in hot gas welding
- Welding theory
- Introduction to SIMONA AMERICA products and markets
- Technical characteristics of polymers

Who Should Attend?

- Expert, intermediate, or beginner welders
- Plastic distributors
 - Fabricators

What's Included?

- Training materials kits
- Weld tensile testing for up to 8 participants and 2 materials
- Beverages and light lunch during training day(s)
- Course participation certificate

Fee:

SIMONA Academy is FREE for up to 8 participants and lunch is included. We strive to be a helpful and educational partner.

Location:

*At our first-class facility in Archbald, PA or
On-site at your facility*

Duration:

Depending on your needs this training can range from half of a day to a full day

To Schedule a Training

Contact:

SIMONA AMERICA Technical Service
US_simona.academy@simona-group.com

*SIMONA Academy weld training is to be regarded as an initial, product related training session and does not compete with certified DVS training programs.

Additional materials and/or participants possible for an added fee of $125 per participant and $25 per material per participant